

Holly's spotlight on style

TV's Holly Willoughby casts her eye over the red carpet

With all the great telly on, I'm surprised anyone's actually making it out! But still our favourite stars are tottering out in their finest. All these gorgeous ladies are showing off their fabulous curves accentuating those lovely little waists. There may be doom and gloom in the papers, but we can still rely on a bit of glamour on the red carpet!

Holly

holly.willoughby@natmag.co.uk

Holly's must-haves

BUSTY BEAUTIES

At last a new brand has come along to celebrate curvy ladies. Oola is a perfectly feminine lingerie brand specifically made for sizes 38 to 48 and bust sizes B to G. Prices range from £12 to £34, so not bad for undies that make you feel glam and sexy.

Bra, £30, and undies, £12, both oola-lingerie.com

LUSH LABEL

You've got to check out Darling dresses. My best mate Fearne Cotton and I are loving them. We've both worn them on our show Celebrity Juice. This was one of Fearne's favourites. Take your pick from girlie shift dresses or vintage style lace ones. So pretty!

Dress, £55, darlingclothes.com and litalondon.com

BEYONCÉ KNOWLES

She's a diva on stage, but off it she's pure class. Keeping it simple on a visit to London, Beyoncé's gone for a dress that really shows off her curves. Nipped in at the waist, the star creates one gorgeously sexy silhouette.

JESSICA BIEL

A fine example of less is more, JT's lady looks immaculate. Black is always a winner, but with the dress ending at the slimmest part of her legs, her pins look long and slender, too! And clearly diamonds will always be a girl's best friend!

